

Eastern New York Marine Trades Associaton Honors Roger Phinney

by John H. Vargo, Publisher

Roger with his wife Lorraine enjoying the good company and a beautiful day.

Long overdue by anyone who knows of the tremendous amount of work that he has done on behalf of the ENYMTA and the Great Upstate Boat Show, Roger Phinney devoted a tremendous amount of talent, enthusiasm and time over the past 15 years to bring the Eastern New York Marine Trades Association to the powerful Marine Trades group that it is today.

ENYMTA members and guests enjoyed the cruises on the Hudson River on boats provided by F.R. Smith & Sons Marina. NYS Canal personnel provided a quick history lesson on each trip.

On Monday afternoon and evening September 11, 2017 a large group of members and friends met at the Idle Hour Men's Club in Ft. Edward, NY to honor Roger and other supporting individuals with boat rides, drinks and dinner.

The weather was fantastic the large crowd was very supportive of Roger, his wife and the other members who were feted.

President John Andersen and Executive Director Joel Holden present a Past President award to Scott Andersen.

Below right: State Senator Betty Little thanked the ENYMTA members for their support and actions to help further the enjoyment of boating.
