

TWO POEMS

BY NANCY TAYLOR

*H*e came with a smile and a Hope for the future.

He came today from somewhere far away as a radiant light in our seemingly never-ending darkness.

He came not as a prophet nor as a seer but as a gentle presence that quietly led us from our superficial self to find our innermost being.

We could not help but love him, his love for us was a kind we had never known or realized existed because our minds were so cluttered with the unimportant matters that concerned us...instead of the beauty, truth and love.

He came to us with a love that gave us strength to apply and demonstrate what he showed us by his own perfection.

The wonder and magnificence of that day will always remain for there was no greater awareness Of our Father's LOVE for his children.

*M*ay all that's bright and right - Be always in your sight - So you will always have the might-
To follow in God's light!
