

A Happy Go Lucky Charterboat Fisherman

Of all the charter boats on the Hudson river I nominate Captain Christian Lucks the most amiable of them all Working out of the Peekskill Yacht Club, he does not have to go very far to take his customers for a memorable experience on arguably the most scenic section of the Hudson River.

When you board his boat and just turn around to the north, only a half mile away, is the Bear Mountain Bridge. (By the way next year is the 100th anniversary of the Bear Mountain Bridge) To the west is some of the best striped bass fishing on the Hudson River. The secret is to be there when the fish are there, and that is the tricky part. However, depending on tide and wind there are a number of opportunities to be on the fish.

Most people think that they can just contact Captain Morgan and go jump on the boat. That is not the case at all. Any good charterboat captain on the Hudson River is booked solidly in advance, some, years in advance. It is not just fishing but fireworks, trips to New York City or to the north are all in the cards. Many people loved to celebrate birthdays or other special events on board his boat the Blue Eyed Devil.

Captain Christian Lucks operates his boat as a six pack charter. This means that four guests are

Are allowed on board plus the captain and mate. The best part is that Captain Lucks has a 100 ton Coast Guard license which gives him years of experience on the water.

Again I urge you to contact Captain Lucks NOW to discuss a future trip on the magnificent Hudson River.

CORTLANDT
YACHT CLUB
CLUBHOUSE
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

For those folks needing a beautiful location overlooking the Hudson River for weddings, Bar Mitzvahs, company meetings, holiday parties and all other functions, there can be no better place than the Cortlandt Yacht Club.

With a capacity of 150 people, outside terrace right on the water, and plenty of parking right in front, this location is something that no one would expect until they see it. A large, beautiful kitchen, outside patio further compliments this terrific location.
