

ODE TO JOHN H. VARGO - A TRUE RENAISSANCE MAN

We send you our Love today -

Because you know that rainbows
Are more precious than gold....

We send you our Love today -

Because you know blue skies
Will always break thru
And dry away
Tear-stained clouds...

We send you our love today -

Because you know daisies
Are more beautiful free,
Reflected on canvas,
Catching the first morning sunlight,
Swaying gently to a soft breeze
And then nodding goodnight
In the twilight
Of a wide open field
And a pillow of stars...

We send you our Love today -

With butterflies to color your day
And heighten your senses,
To celebrate the specialness of YOU
That floods from our heart

With LOVE for YOU far beyond today...
